

The King of Kings

Revelation 19:11-21

Main Idea: The return of Christ as the King of Kings assures us that victory over evil is certain, calling us to live as faithful followers in anticipation of His glorious reign.

- |             |  |                 |
|-------------|--|-----------------|
| I.   | King Jesus will return in all glory and power. | 19:11-16 |
| 1.          | His appearance is glorious .                                 | 19:11-13        |
| 2.          | His army is holy .   | 19:14           |
| 3.          | His authority is unparalleled .                              | 19:15-16        |
| II.  | King Jesus will judge all who reject Him.             | 19:17-18 |
| 1.          | There will be no escape .   | 19:17           |
| 2.          | There will be no discrimination .                                   | 19:18           |
| III. | King Jesus will defeat all who oppose Him.            | 19:19-21 |
| 1.          | Jesus will capture His enemies.                                     | 19:19-20        |
| 2.          | Jesus will slay His enemies.  | 19:21           |